NUMB. 2286

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 20. 1742.

Petersbourg, Oct. 6.

WE receive very different Accounts from Moſcow. Some aſſure us, that the new French Miniſter is like to grow into as great Credit as the old one; while according to other Accounts, the French Intereſt declines daily. Our Politicians have been very deſirous to know what the Contents were of M. d'Allion's laſt Diſpatches, of which he ſo much boaſted; the common Opinion is, that they related to ſome new Propoſition of Peace; but ſuch as are thought to be better informed, aſſert that they related to a Marriage between the Duke of Holſtein-Gottorp and a certain Princeſs; that is to ſay, in plain Terms, a Daughter of France; a Step which if once taken will give the Clergy immortal Diſquiet. The ſame Miniſter pretends, that a certain Court has thought of raiſing the Prince of Birkenfeldt to the Throne of Sweden; but as all theſe Schemes have a manifeſt Tendency to diſſolve the firm Union that has hitherto ſubſiſted between us and our Allies, it cannot be ſuppoſed that ſuch Inſinuations will have any Weight with our Miniſtry, who know by Experience that France is at too great a Diſtance to do us any Good, and is abſolutely unable to do us Hurt, but by her Intrigues. Upon the whole it is expected, that when the Britiſh Miniſter receives Inſtructions from his Court, relating to the mediating a Peace with Sweden, we ſhall then ſee what Turn Affairs will take, and upon what Terms our Court will ſtand with her Northern Neighbours.

Dreſden, Oct. 13. The Court return'd Yeſterday from Leipſick to Hubertsbourg. The Troops of this Electorate are canton'd all along the Frontiers of Bohemia, in ſuch a Manner as that an Army of 30,000 Men may be aſſembled in 48 Hours. This is certainly a very neceſſary, and at the ſame time a very political Precaution; we prevent our own Country from being inſulted, and by the ſame Method we render ourſelves reſpected by our Neighbours. It is however a very doubtful Point, what Share, if any, we ſhall take in theſe Diſputes; in the mean time, it is certain that the Court of Pruſſia, as well as that of Great Britain, earneſtly preſſes his Majeſty powerfully to aſſiſt the Queen of Hungary, that by overwhelming the French in Germany, a Road may be opened to reduce her exorbitant Power, and to gratify that Spirit of Acquiſition at her Coſt, which her Arts have excited.

Dreſden, Oct. 21. Count de Saxe was ſuppoſed, by making himſelf Maſter of Elmbogen, to have gain'd two Marches on the Auſtrians towards Prague, but no Advantage has been taken from it, Marſhal Maillebois not having ſeconded him, nor advanced, as yet, any farther towards a Junction with Broglio. On the contrary, he has let the Auſtrians get before him to Caaden, and is, as we have been informed here, determined, if poſſible, to retreat from Schlakenwald towards Amberg, in the Upper Palatinate; tho' it is likewiſe ſaid, that he is ſo inveſted as not to be able either to make the leaſt Motion, without expoſing himſelf to be attacked under great Diſadvantages, or to abide long in the Poſition he is in for Want of Forage: And at the ſame time we hear that Marſhal Broglio is returned to Prague with the old Garriſon, except what had eſcaped, and what he has poſted at Leuthmeritz, and at ſome other Places, to ſecure a Paſſage to Saxony. There are near 20 Officers from Prague paſs every Day thro' Saxony, ſome with, and ſome without their Diſmiſſion, reſolved to ſerve no longer in that Country. Count Saxe himſelf has already ſent his Baggage the ſame Way; and, it is ſaid, that ſeveral Officers of his Regiment, which is compoſed ſolely of Germans, have likewiſe ask'd their Diſmiſſion, which was readily granted. The Great Duke has detach'd 6000 Men towards Paſſau, which makes the abovementioned Conjecture of Maillebois's Deſign of retreating, appear more credible.

Duſſeldorp, Oct. 21. Our Court has cauſed to be publiſhed the following Letter from his Pruſſian Majeſty to the Elector Palatine our Sovereign.

'Moſt Serene Prince, our moſt dear Couſin,

'The Marquis de Valori, Miniſter of France at our 'Court, has delivered to us the very obliging Letter 'which your Highneſs was ſo good as to write us, dated 'the 8th of this Month. It is with equal Gratitude and 'Satisfaction we perceive, that notwithſtanding the Alterations that have happened in our firſt Engagements, 'by the Separate Peace we have made with the Court of 'Vienna, that you ſtill remain in the ſame favourable 'Diſpoſitions, and that your Serene Highneſs, as appears 'by that Letter, are ſtill ready to grant your Guarantee 'of the Duchy of Sileſia and County of Glatz, and have 'even ſent your formal Declaration to that Purpoſe, as 'we deſired, purſuant to the Convention ſettled between 'us. Neither do we doubt that the Count Palatine of 'Sultzbach, and his Deſcendants, the Princeſſes Grand-'Children of your Electoral Highneſs, and the Court of 'France, will religiouſly and inviolably maintain the En-'gagements they have entered into on that Head. We 'cannot therefore forbear expreſſing, not only our own 'firm and ſincere Intention, ſtrictly and unalterably to 'perform whatever we have promiſed to your Serene 'Electoral Highneſs, to the Houſe of Sultzbach, and to 'the Princeſſes your Highneſs's Grand-Children, with 'reſpect to the Succeſſion of Juliers and Bergue; but 'alſo that we permit without the leaſt Difficulty, that 'your Highneſs ſecure it for the preſent to the Duke of 'Sultzbach, by the eventual Homage of the States of 'thoſe Duchies: Nay, ſo far are we from giving the 'leaſt Oppoſition thereto, that we congratulate moſt ſincerely your Electoral Highneſs thereon; wiſhing that 'it may give you perfect Conſolation for the preſent, 'and that in Times to come it may turn to the Glory 'and Advantage of your Serene Electoral Houſe, &c.'

Berlin, Aug. 15. 1742.

Hamburgh, Oct. 23. Letters from Franckfort of the 14th Inſtant bring Advice, that Count Seckendorff was march'd to Waſſerbourg to attack the Auſtrians who had intrench'd themſelves there; and that he had given Orders, that every Bavarian, from the Age of 18 to 50, ſhould immediately join his Army with ſuch regular Arms as they might be provided with, and that they who had none, ſhould ſupply the Want of them with Hatchets, Pick-axes, &c. Capt. Trendel is ſet out from Stockholm, to inform the Court of Ruſſia, that Baron Gedda, and M. Nolken, are appointed Plenipotentiaries, on the Part of Sweden, to treat of ſuch Terms of Peace as may reſtore the Tranquility of the North. Prince William of Saxe Gotha arrived here on the 20th Inſtant, and his Nuptials with the Princeſs Anne of Holſtein are to be celebrated the 8th of next Month.

Paris, Oct. 19. The Day before Yeſterday the King held a great Council of State, wherein the Point chiefly in Debate was, the Management of Affairs in Flanders; and on the breaking up of the Council, a Courier was diſpatch'd to Marſhal Noailles. Every body affects at Verſailles to ſpeak with Indifference of a War with Great Britain, and to treat it as a thing not much to be avoided or fear'd; but one can hardly think this the real Sentiments of our great Men, when one conſiders that they have lately adviſed the Spaniards to withdraw at all Events their Squadron from Toulon, ſince, in caſe of a Rupture, the Engliſh Fleet would infallibly burn it in that Harbour. Mr. Van Hoey the Dutch Miniſter has had lately ſome very long Conferences with Cardinal Fleury, which are thought to have given little Satisfaction to either Party. His Eminence it ſeems has expreſs'd himſelf diſſatisfy'd with what he is pleas'd to call an Ambiguous Neutrality, and ſeems to intimate, that France cannot ſee unconcern'd ſuch mighty Armaments on its Frontiers. It is whiſper'd here, that Don Philip will be invited to ſpend the Winter in this City, and that Ways and Means will be found to compromize all Matters in Difference between the Court of Spain and the King of Sardinia next Spring. But it is much doubted whether theſe Projects will take Effect, her Catholick Majeſty having ſtrictly forbidden the Infant to think of coming hither without her expreſs Leave. As the Court is entirely ſilent with regard to the Succeſs of Marſhal Maillebois, we begin to doubt whether he has yet beaten Prince Charles, or relieved Prague; nor are there many here in the ſame Opinion they were three Months ago, viz. that in conjunction with Marſhal Broglio he would open the next Campaign with the Siege of Vienna.

Hague, Oct. 26. There are certain Advices, that the King of Sardinia, being arrived on the 15th Inſtant with his whole Army in the Neighbourhood of Mont Melian, where the Spaniards were incamp'd, and his Sardinian Majeſty marching forwards in order to attack them, they immediately retreated with great Precipitation, and were purſued by his Majeſty to the Frontiers of Savoy, which Duchy they entirely evacuated, and are returned into France.

LONDON.

There are Advices from Conſtantinople, which ſay, that Thamas Kouli Kan has actually broken with the Grand Seignior; that he has already taken Baſſora, and has ſince proceeded to beſiege Bagdad; that the Perſian Army conſiſts of 300,000 Men, and that of the Turks of 150,000.

Marſhal Belleiſle being very much indiſpoſed, has obtained the King's Permiſſion to retire to his Government of Metz; where, it is thought, he will remain a good while before he is invited to Court.

There has been remitted within theſe few Months to Dreſden near 3,000,000 of Livres, for the Supply of the French Army in Bohemia, beſides the Remittances made to Breſlau and other Places.

A great Quantity of Tools for removing Earth, and a conſiderable Train of Artillery, have been lately ſent to Douay; and ſome Letters by the laſt Paris Mail ſay, that the Court will quickly order Hoſtilities to be commenced, in caſe the Allies ſhould defer coming to Action.

It is ſaid that Count Gyllenbourg has form'd a Scheme for compromiſing the Diſputes about the Succeſſion to the Crown of Sweden, by marrying the Duke of Holſtein to the young Princeſs of Heſſe.

Capt. Clark, of the Hotherſall, arrived at Portſmouth from Barbados, ſpoke with the Launceſton Man of War, Capt. Warren, for New York, in Lat. 38:34, Longit. 48, all well on board.

The Lydia and Dorothy, Capt. Galt, bound from South Carolina for Barbados, was lately loſt on the Granadillas, but 'twas believ'd that Part of her Cargo would be ſav'd.

The Robert and Jane, Antient, from Lynn for Rotterdam, is loſt on the Coaſt of Holland.

Yeſterday Morning died Mrs. Suſanna Harris, Widow, at the late Francis Wilks's, Eſq; in Auſtin Fryars, to whom ſhe was Siſter and Executrix; and we hear ſhe has left the Bulk of her Eſtate, which was very conſiderable, to her Siſter, Widow of the late Mr. John Marriott of Cornhill.

Yeſterday both Houſes of Parliament met at Weſtminſter, purſuant to their laſt Prorogation, and (by virtue of a Commiſſion ſigned by his Majeſty, directed to the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor, the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, the Lord Delawar, and others) were further prorogued to the 16th of November next; at which Time they are to ſit for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs, purſuant to his Majeſty's Proclamation.

The ſame Day both Houſes of Convocation met at the Jeruſalem-Chamber, Weſtminſter, purſuant to their laſt Adjournment, and were further adjourned to the 16th of November next.

The ſame Day died in Mancheſter-Court, Channel-Row, Weſtminſter, Mrs. Judith Prince, Relict of —— Prince, Eſq; a Gentlewoman exceedingly reſpected by all that had the Happineſs of her Acquaintance. Her Death is much lamented by the Poor, to whom ſhe was a great Benefactreſs.

The Lords of the Admiralty have been pleaſed to appoint Capt. Thompſon, of the Veſuvius Fireſhip, to be Captain of the Peregrine, a Spaniſh Ship of War taken ſome time ſince as a Prize.

Yeſterday a luſty Man, very well dreſt, was taken up drown'd, at the lower wet Dock near Deptford.

An Infallible REMEDY

For BROKEN-WINDED HORSES,

(And particularly the present Cold so common amongst the Horses.)

WHich has been published and sold many Years before any Counterfeits in other Forms appeared; and highly commended from one Friend to another. The vast Quantities that have been sold do also verify its Efficacy and Virtues, for it most perfectly cures them, after all others Means have been ineffectual, to a Wonder, in a small time, without Confinement; by attenuating and opening the Globules of the Lungs dried up, and all the Passages obstructed by Humours clipping thereon, occasion'd by hard Riding, Colds, &c. It causes presently a free Perspiration, renewing its Force, Vigour and Length again, as well as ever.

It immediately cures those Horses only a little touch'd in their Wind, as also all continued Coughs, Colds, Wheesing, &c. being excellent in preventing many other Distempers incident unto them, by maintaining, preserving, and continuing a good Breath.

And in a word, by this very Medicine alone, many Horses have been made so perfectly sound, that they have been sold and valued from 10 to 30 or 40 Pounds, which by being Broken-winded, could not before be sold for 3 or 4 Pounds

It is sold at Mr. Sandwell's Toy-Shop at the Griffin, the Corner of Buckler's-Bury in the Poultry, at 4 s. 6 d. the Quart Bottle, with Directions for taking it; and no where else in England.
